Easter services will be observed in St. Mark's Epistopal church tomorrow morning at II o'clock and they are expected to be particularly interesting, as the congression, which is far larger than the atgregowin, which is far larger than the attending membership last year, have made particular efforts to secure the largest nitrodance ever known within the structure. The somewhat unfinished openition of the remode of an enlarged building with the added fast that the variantees have not yet completed their inhere, of course militates against the pretty firmit decorations always looked for in an Episopa enturn on Easter Sanday. However, there will be some flowers to rival the away faces of those of the worship here who belong to the fair sex.
